Reply:

The Correctional Services Department (CSD) encourages persons in custody (PICs) to cultivate an interest in and spend their leisure time on reading. Therefore, libraries have been set up in various correctional institutions to provide PICs with books of different types and in different languages. The total collections of the libraries in correctional institutions currently extend to over 120 000 copies. In the past 5 years, CSD incurred an average annual expenditure of about $72,000 on the acquisition of new books for the libraries in various correctional institutions, and the average number of new books acquired every year was about 1 000 copies.

Staff members of the Education Unit of CSD are responsible for the acquisition of appropriate books for the libraries in accordance with the established procurement procedures, having regard to factors such as reading interests and learning needs of PICs. CSD does not maintain a breakdown of books by category. In addition, CSD borrows books from the Hong Kong Public Libraries to facilitate loans by PICs, replaces the borrowed books in batches on a regular basis and also receives books donated by outside organisations or individuals according to the established mechanism.

CSD has been making its best endeavours to increase the number of books in foreign languages. At present, books kept in the libraries of various correctional institutions are in about 40 different languages. In addition to books in the Chinese and English languages, CSD has acquired over 4 500 books in other languages over the past 5 years for reading by

PICs of other nationalities who are illiterate in English and Chinese. The distribution of books by language is tabulated below:

Book	Quantity	Percentage (%)
Traditional Chinese	84 286	69
Simplified Chinese	8 091	7
English	13 629	11
Other languages (Note)	15 736	13
Total	121 742	100

Note: Not less than 40 different languages, e.g. Vietnamese, Indonesian, Thai, Korean, Spanish, French, Hindi, Urdu, etc.
